Additional Prayer Needs on Bulletin Insert

* Prayer requests can now be made and acknowledged on our church web page...

Welcome... to the worship and Christian fellowship of the Clinton church of Christ. If you are visiting with us today, know that your presence is an encouragement to us. May we all be blessed of God!!

- Please remember new Fair Haven needs for April... The primary items include Corn Bread Mix, Jello, Gravy Mix, Puddings, Hamburger Helper, Spaghetti Sauce. Other items are listed in the foyer if you would like to help with other items. Brother David Grimm will be here on April 26th.

- There is no 3rd Sunday potluck today, but we will be having the men's business meeting after our morning assembly. We invite all the men to come and take part in handling business matters. Our evening assembly will be at 6:00 PM.

- We want to let our parents know that there are children's bulletins available each week and can be picked up on the table in the foyer.

- Sisters Karen Pearson and Debbie Easterly have been taking new family photos for the family board and directory. Please check your information on the clipboard in the foyer for any changes in address (mailing and emailing), phone numbers. Please return old directory's to re-use covers...

- Did you know we have a suggestion box in the foyer? If you have an idea or a suggestion for the church activities, leadership, or facilities, this would be the place to put it if you would like! Let's see what God can do with the Clinton congregation in 2020!

THOSE Serving...

- Our Friday morning breakfast bible study is reviewing "The Church of Christ in the 21st Century" and is open to any who would be able to attend. Let brother Nolan know if you would be interested in attending, we have a couple of extra study books!!

Bible Thought for the week

Who Can Ever Repay?

In the early 1900s, there was a man in the Russian army who had the job of paymaster. His job was to accept and then distribute the pay to the soldiers of the units in his area. This certain young paymaster had a problem with gambling. After having received a large sum of money for a company of soldiers he became caught up on a game and lost not only his own pay for a month but the pay of the entire unit. He knew there was no way he could ever repay the money and knew there was no hope but prison or a firing squad.

He decided the only thing he could do was to take his own life. He sat at his desk with a pistol and wrote this note. "So great a debt. Who could ever repay?" As he sat in anguish thinking about what he must do, he fell asleep. Nicholas, Tzar of Russia at the time, happened to be out for an evening walk and noticed the light still on at the paymasters quarters. He decided to stop in on the young man. He found the door open and the young man asleep with the pistol on his desk and the note. He took the pistol and wrote on the bottom of the note, "Nicholas can."

We, like the young paymaster, have a great debt we cannot possibly ever repay. We deserve death. Not one of us is righteous. Not one of us can ever earn enough to deserve the reward of heaven. We have so great a debt. Who can ever repay? Jesus can -- and He did.

Story retold as heard from a minister at a small church in Langley, Arkansas

What makes Wildcats?

When two small boys visited the wild cats at the local zoo, one of them wondered aloud: "I wonder why these cats are wild!"

The other boy replied, "They are wild cats because their father and mother were wild cats!"

This may explain a lot of the problems in the world today. And, beyond a doubt, it explains why many children have little or no interest in the church or Bible study. Our children are not wholly dependent upon us for what they become, but we are wholly responsible to God for what we influence them to become.

It is an evident fact that we cannot lead a child in the way that we do not go ourselves. "Train up a child in the way he should go", said Solomon, but only if we walk in it ourselves can we hope to do it.
