REQUESTS

Welcome... to the worship and Christian fellowship of the Clinton church of Christ. If you are visiting with us today, know that your presence is an encouragement to us. May we all be blessed of God!!

- Our Joint Praise and Worship with Warrensburg tonight will be held at Cave Hollow Park and will be earlier than we usually meet. The church family there is hosting an activity for the kids of their congregation and invite ours to join in. They are providing dinner at 5PM and Praise and Worship will follow. We are certainly encouraged and built up in our faith in our assemblies and hope you will make every effort to come and worship together!!

- Hymns @ Home is making a comeback next Friday, meeting at the Zabel home at 6:30PM!! Don't forget your favorite snack/finger food! If you thought it was too late to sign up for Hymns @ Home or to change the sign messages, don't despair!! Openings still remain!

- Our May monthly planner is available on the table in the foyer. Please correct Audrey Bullock's name is listed for her birthday (20th), and please also forgive the oversight!

- Brother David Grimm sent us a thank you card is posted on the bulletin board (Fair Haven).

- We have received a graduation announcement from Hollyn Nichole Achens... She is the granddaughter of Allen and Sherry Allcock and it has been posted on the bulletin board in the foyer.

- Raffle for a Cause... Share & Care is soliciting support for their clients to be able to attend camp and participate in activities. A flyer is posted, contact any caregiver.

- Our Friday morning breakfast bible study is covering "Living a Life That Matters" and is open to any who would be able to attend. Let brother Nolan know if you would be interested in attending, we have a couple of extra study books!!

The One Another Passages by The Scriptures by Phil Ware

Two people are better off than one, for they can help each other succeed. If one person falls, the other can reach out and help. But someone who falls alone is in real trouble. Likewise, two people lying close together can keep each other warm. But how can one be warm alone? A person standing alone can be attacked and defeated, but two can stand back-to-back and conquer. Three are even better, for a triple-braided cord is not easily broken (Ecclesiastes 4:9-12 NLT).

Jesus never intended his followers to try to live their life of faith in isolation. He sent his disciples out two-by-two on their mission journeys. He often used inclusive family terms to speak about their life of faith ("our Father," "your brother").

This emphasis on community and family is carried over in the rest of the New Testament as we hear about house churches and our need to be there for each other. The "one another passages" of the New Testament arise out of this background — a recognition that we need each other to walk the Christian talk. We can't do it by ourselves and we were never intended to try to do it by ourselves.

Below, you will find a collection of New Testament passages from various translations that use the phrase "one another" and a few that use the phrase "each other." These are great passages to use in trying to live out the community that Jesus envisions in the Sermon on the Mount. Yet as you try to live these fully, you will also recognize your need to be in close fellowship with a small group of believers who can help you grow, hold you accountable, and encourage you in the Lord. These are shared for your growth, obedience, and commitment to be part of the people of God.

Mark 9:50 ☞ "Salt is good; but if the salt becomes unsalty, with what will you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."
